

Family Policy Compliance Office Resolution - 2003

WHEREAS, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) is intended to guarantee students in the United States the right of access to their education records, including disciplinary records, and protect them from inappropriate release of those records; and

WHEREAS, the Association for Student Judicial Affairs (ASJA) and its members rely upon the Family Policy Compliance Office of the U.S. Department of Education for guidance and information regarding the proper implementation of FERPA regulations; and

WHEREAS, the guidance and information provided are consistently thorough, accurate and timely; and

WHEREAS, ASJA and its individual members are deeply appreciative of the outreach efforts of Mr. LeRoy Rooker, Director of the Family Policy Compliance Office; therefore be it

RESOLVED, that on this the thirtieth anniversary of the enactment of FERPA the ASJA thanks and commends the Family Policy Compliance Office for continued excellence in service to higher education. Further be it

RESOLVED, that the President of ASJA shall present this resolution to the Family Compliance Office.
