

Student Organizations Institute

July 22-25 | University of Louisville

The number of student organizations on college campuses has grown significantly over the last decade and the need for greater support and oversight has increased at the same time. The NACA/ASCA Student Organizations Institute will offer higher education professionals and student organization advisors the opportunity to deepen their understanding of the principles related to advising, risk management and student conduct and to enhance their skills in these areas.

Institute participants will interact with facilitators and other participants to learn about both general and specific topics related to the culture, structure, resources, tools, and techniques that will help them to manage campus student organizations and their activities. Sessions will be structured in a variety of styles to allow for active learning.
